The Process

We shortlist for interview

A dark, artistic photograph of a desk. In the foreground, a silver stethoscope with a red handle lies diagonally across a white notebook. A silver pen with a red grip is also visible, resting on the notebook. The notebook has some handwritten text in cursive, including the word 'Arrange' and 'read'. The background is a wooden desk surface. The overall lighting is dim, creating a professional and focused atmosphere.

The Process

We interview

A photograph of a desk with a stethoscope, a pen, and a notebook with handwritten notes. The stethoscope is red and silver, resting on the desk. A silver pen with a red cap is also visible. The notebook has handwritten notes in black ink, including the word 'Arrange' and 'read'. The background is a wooden desk.

The Process

We Interview:

Face to face/By phone/By VOIP

By whatever works on the day.

The Process

Ranking depends on a combination of all of these and our prior contact.

So is a visit required?

The Process

No.

But

Wherever you apply to you should be happy it is the fit for you so do your research.

The Process

Then ACE match our ranking hopefully we and you agree
you are great for us and we are for you!
